"Cabaret" is a musical set in Berlin during the 1930s, following the intersecting lives of a young English cabaret performer named Sally Bowles and an American writer named Cliff Bradshaw. Their relationships and experiences are intertwined with the decadent and politically tumultuous atmosphere of pre-World War II Germany, all seen through the eyes of the enigmatic Emcee of the Kit Kat Klub. "Cabaret" is presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals on behalf of Tams-Witmark LLC.
