Hedwig AND THE ANGRY INCH

Thursday & Friday September 24 & 25 at 7:30 PM

Saturday & Sunday September 26 & 27 at 2:30 PM

Part musical, part punk rock concert, part stand-up comedy show, Hedwig and the Angry Inch tells the tale of how a "slip of a girlyboy" from communist East Berlin, becomes the "internationally ignored song stylist" known as Hedwig after a botched sex change operation.

The show daringly breaks the fourth wall, as Hedwig directly tells the audience of her past tribulations and heartbreak in the form of an extended monologue paired with rock songs. With a little help from her band and her back-up singer Yitzhak, Hedwig examines her quest for her other half, for love, and ultimately for her identity.

Written by John Cameron Mitchell featuring a groundbreaking rock musical score by Stephen Trask, Hedwig and the Angry Inch is hilarious, harrowing, and essentially uplifting for anyone who's ever felt different. The cast includes: Loraine O'Donnell, Cassandra Dolan, Josh Clanton, Nick Mellace, Susan Mills and Sully Walker. Produced by special arrangement with Concord Theatricals.

ENCORE!

RCT presents the Second Act Readers Theater production of Neil Simon and Anton Chekhov's "The Good Doctor" on October 18th at 3PM for one performance only. Originally, the production was performed at the Rome Art and Community Center in August to a sold out audience. The show is a comedy composed of 12 vignettes based on Chekhov's stories. The readers theater format sees six actors (Directors Kim Santich and Ted Lenio, Producer John Parker, Carl DeFranco, Trena DeFranco and Josephine Perkins) reading more than two-dozen preposterous yet relatable characters from music stands. The actors' facial and vocal qualities are emphasized, enhanced by props, costuming, lighting and recorded music. General admission tickets are $15. The Sunday matinee features a complimentary reception starting at 2PM and during intermission in the RCT lobby. If you like to laugh, this is the place to be so mark your calendar and purchase your tickets today at the link below. "The Good Doctor" is presented by special arrangement with Concord Theatricals on behalf of Samuel French, Inc.
